PIONEER OF THE NILE - ENCHANTED WOODS, BY WOODMAN

BARN 10

INSTA ERMA was Stakes Placed on June 18th in the $100,000 Lady Canterbury Stakes, beaten a short neck to Ian Wilkes G2 Placed Tapit filly, Sweet Tapper. She has been a very consistent turf filly hitting the board in her last three starts all in 2017. She is a half-sister to two Stakes horses and is by one of the hottest sires in the country right now in Pioneerof The Nile. She is part of a five horse Zayat Stables draft, after a year where the top stable had a great year pinhooking two-year-olds this is a natural next progression to sell some of their racehorses as well. This is a filly that can be moved to any barn in the country and be immediately competitive at the Stakes level.

She earned an 87 Beyer, 6 Thoro-Graph, and 10 Ragozin in her second place effort on June 18th.

CURRENT TRAINER – BILL MOTT

Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott is known for taking excellent care of his horses. He is based in New York, Florida, and Kentucky. He does a good job campaigning horses through long careers leaving a lot in the tank from year to year. He has campaigned many top turf horses through his career and wins at about a 15% clip.

RACE CAREER OVERVIEW

JUNE 18TH – LADY CANTERBURY S.

2ND BY A NECK – ▶ WATCH RACE REPLAY \(SHE IS #4\)

In her first career start in blinkers INSTA ERMA settled into a nice tracking 3rd position in the one mile turf event. Around the far turn she was racing three wide losing ground in arguably the most crucial part of the race. Turning for home she put away two time Stakes Winner Gianna's Dream down the stretch and looked home free when Sweet Tapper came up her inside and nailed her late. I am not sure she even saw the horse coming with her first time in blinkers but either way ran an outstanding race, and added to her pedigree page in the process.

MAY 19TH – ALLOWANCE

2ND BY 1 1/4 LENGTHS –

 WATCH RACE REPLAY (SHE IS #2)

In a $90,000 Allowance at Belmont Park INSTA ERMA was taken out of her element a bit when wrangled back to be 5th even though she broke sharp and was looking to be closer to the lead. She was bounced around in between horses and ended up settling towards the rear. Turning for home she was put into the four path and closed gamely down the stretch. She covered 16 feet more than the winner Ultimate Holiday who went wire to wire in the win. INSTA ERMA showed good turn of foot down the lane and overcame a tough trip. Bill Mott was on a bit of a cold streak during this effort by INSTA ERMA being 0 for 28 at Belmont.

APRIL 20TH – ALLOWANCE

3RD BY LESS THAN A LENGTH –

 WATCH RACE REPLAY (SHE IS #7)

This was INSTA ERMA's most impressive race visually in her recent form. Coming off a four month winter freshening she returned in a top Allowance at Keeneland on April 20th. She sat in a nice tracking position on the rail throughout. However, no hole opened up for Julien Leparoux and he was forced to swing her into the NINE PATH! She closed strongly down the center of the track eating up ground. She finished a close 3rd beaten a head for 2nd and  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a length for the win. The winner Conquest Babayaga was coming off an Allowance score at Gulfstream to make it two in a row and went on to run 2nd beaten a head bob in the G3 Intercontinental at Belmont Park on June 8th.
