Just missed last out: Homefieldadvantage was sent off as the favorite for the second straight time and did everything but win in her last start at Monmouth on July 4th. Breaking well, she made a bold bid around the turn and turned in a very good effort to close the gap, running 2nd by a neck. She progressed 16 Beyer points from her first start and track announcer Frank Mirahmadi commented as she passed the wire "Homefieldadvantage ran A WINNING RACE!!"
