FATALE BERE earned her status as a G1 winner with a scintillating performance in the G1 Del Mar Oaks. Mid-pack as they came off the turn, she was launched off the rail at the top of the stretch in a 4-wide bid and surged to the front of the pack right at the wire in a perfectly timed ride from Kent Desormeaux.

"FATALE BERE coming fast on the grandstand side...FATALE BERE catching stride-for-stride...and she's up to win it!"

-Track Announcer Trevor Denman

In this impressive performance, she beat G2W Ollie's Candy, G2W Californiagoldrush and G3W/G2P Colonia. She flew home in a VERY FAST :11.3 for the 1  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile test.

A precocious and talented juvenile, FATALE BERE won her first two starts in France and was 3rd in a Stake before shipping to the U.S. In her first start for trainer Leonard Powell, she made a splash in the $100,000 Surfer Girl Stakes flying late to win by a nose at the wire defeating MSW One Fast Broad, G1P Yesterday's News and SW Multiplayer.

SUMMARY

FATALE BERE is one of only two G1-winners offered this Keeneland January. A talented juvenile, she won her first two starts in France and made a splash in her U.S. debut at 2yo to win the $100,000 Surfer Girl Stakes at Santa Anita.

As a sophomore, she displayed her explosive turn of foot to win multiple Graded Stakes including the G3 Providencia and G1 Del Mar Oaks defeating some of the most talented 3yo, turf fillies in the country.

Retiring with earnings of $427,964, she offers breeders the rare-opportunity to get their hands on a young, newly minted Grade 1 winner.
