After two in-the-money finishes at Oaklawn against some classy 3-year-olds, BAROSSA got back to his winning ways this May at Indiana against Alw-N1X company.

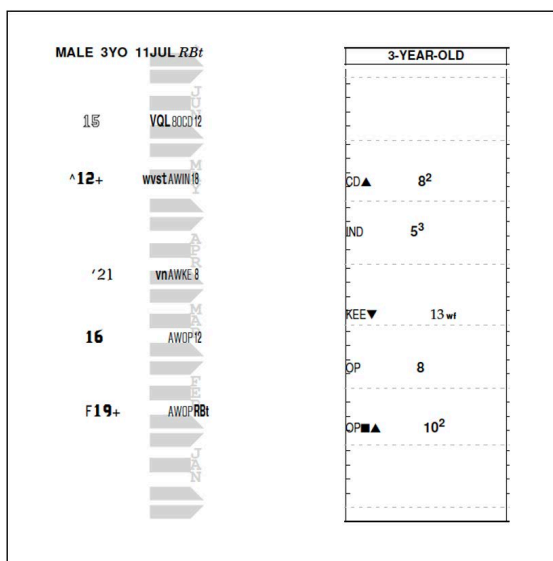

Stumbling to his knees at the start, BAROSSA was forced last early before working his way back into position sitting a stalking trip before making a 3-wide bid at the top of the stretch. Engaging with the pace setter who got away with a easy fractions, BAROSSA gamely dug in and wore down his foe in the late stages to prevail (click to view race replay). He earned an 83 Beyer, 12+ Ragozin, and a lifetime-best 5³ Thoro-Graph.

In his most recent start, BAROSSA was cut back in distance to a 1-turn mile at Churchill where he was seen running behind BEST ACTOR who is entered in the G3 Indiana Derby.
