ANALYSIS

- Brindi most recently broke her maiden going 5f on the turf at Delaware Park, defeating seven two-year-old fillies.
- BRINDI began her career with a 3rd place finish in a Saratoga MdSpWt finishing behind Abientot, winner of the G3 Matron, and Will Reign, who competed in both the G1 Natalma and Catch a Glimpse stakes. This race featured five fillies who have since come back to win maiden special weight races.
- Brindi finished 4th as the favorite in another Saratoga maiden special weight where she was pinballed from the inside and outside at the start.

SPEED FIGURES

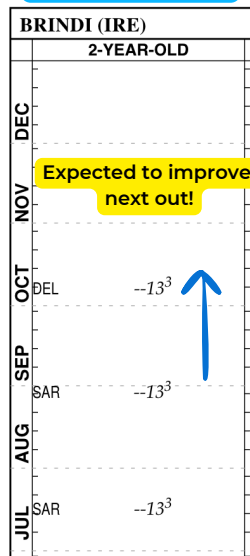

BRINDI earned a 17+ Ragozin figure when having trouble at the start of her second race in Saratoga.

This number stacks up remarkably well with 2024 2yo stakes performers.

Out on Bail – 17+ in Skidmore S. win (Saratoga)

Gate to Wire – 18 in 2nd place finish in G3 Futurity (Aqueduct)

THOROGRAPH

PEDIGREE

BRINDI is one of just two daughters of top European sire No Nay Never, a son of Scat Daddy who is standing for €125,000 in 2025 at Coolmore, selling this November.

BRINDI's dam Salamah was a winner at two herself, breaking her maiden on debut in England.

Salamah is a daughter of the late, great Shamardal, whose daughters have done a great job carrying on his legacy by producing 86 stakes winners to date, including numerous G1Ws like Goliath, Hellow Youmzain, Awtaad, Imperatriz and Facteur Cheval, among others.

Salamah is a sister to G1W

Emaraaty Ana, who competed in an astounding 15 G1 races over the course of his career while earning nearly $1.3 million on the track.

Salamah, who was purchased for $475,000 in 2019, has a colt by No Nay Never on the ground this year.

Emaraaty Ana wins the 2021 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup.
