- After running 4th and showing speed around one turn on debut at Ellis Park, TOUCHDOWN ROCKET went gate to wire in a maiden breaking win at Indiana, where the 2nd place finisher was nearly 7 lengths clear of the 3rd place finisher.
- He has been back on the worktab since that race and looks like a great prospect for the Oaklawn or Fair Grounds meet.

SPEED FIGURES

➤ TOUCHDOWN ROCKET has been consistent on the sheets through his first two starts, even taking a step forward from his debut to his second start on Thoro-Graph, going from a 13 to an 11.

➤ By the outstanding Arrogate, TOUCHDOWN ROCKET is out of the G3 placed Street Sense mare Sensitively, making him a ½-brother to standout 2yo filly Non Compliant, who is undefeated through two starts, including a win in the G2 Oak Leaf S. at Santa Anita.
